Sequential Biome Mask – certification of expiry

Dear whomever is concerned,

This letter is to confirm that the Biome Masks have been shown to be safe for an additional 14 months after the official expiry date of April 2026, after they were manufactured in April 2024. This brings the new expiry date to June 2027 for the following SKU:

- Hydration # EDOC50

Please contact us at team@sequential.bio for any concerns.

Sincerely,

Petronille Houdart
Skincare director at Sequential
